ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAMS

HAVAS AGENCY

Marseilles, 17th

Twenty seven fatal cases of cholera occurred in this city on Sunday.

London, 17th (evening).

According to the latest advices from the Soudan a serious insurrection has broken out in Khartoum. The local authorities, powerless to quell the rising, have been put to flight. Fighting was carried on in the streets. The victorious insurgents sacked the town and murdered, it is stated, Abdullah, nephew and successor to the late Mahdi.

Owing to the difficulties of communication, it cannot be ascertained to what extent these reports are true.

Madrid 18th—Cholera continues to spread. What renders the situation more serious is the fact that very few cases have been cured while the number of deaths is constantly increasing.

Marseilles 18th—According to the latest official bulletin 24 fatal cases of cholera have occurred.

MINISTER PACHECO'S SPEECH.

Better late than never! After three months of idle talk, Congress has at last entered the right groove, and has begun business in an energetic manner. It is quite refreshing to see the financial questions of the moment supersede the excitement of political debates, and it is worthy of note to remark how the opposition is making the financial policy of the Government the great pivot of its attack.

Deputy Davila's interpellation on Monday and Dr. Pacheco's excellent speech and succinct analysis of the loan negotiation combined to make the Session the most important and exciting of the year. Deputy Davila, we all know, dislikes Lombard Street and even the hushed whisper of a London and Paris syndicate; for the last three months he has attacked the Pellegrini loan, the financial policy of the Government and all schemes tending to increase the foreign debt of the country, and the columns of his newspaper have bristled with figures and articles that showed considerable knowledge of the finances of the nation and sound economical principles. An interpellation from such an influential quarter called forth the following splendid speech from Dr. Pacheco who has put the whole loan business into a nutshell. The talented Minister said:—

"In 1883 Congress voted a loan of Thirty millions in bonds bearing 5 per cent interest and 1 per cent sinking fund. In the three previous years Congress had voted twelve millions, under exactly the same conditions, for the City Improvements and Riachuelo Works. The latter amount was negotiated with a Paris Syndicate, in August 1883, as follows:

"The Syndicate took over 4 million dollars firm at 82½ per cent, less a commission of 2½ per cent which included all expenses. The loan thus stood for that amount at 80, payable at dates. The Government discounted these bills and netted 78 1/3 per cent. The Syndicate, meantime, was allowed the option of emitting the balance of the loan, eight million dollars, in a term not exceeding six months, after signing of the contract. But as the amount embodied two loans, the Syndicate requested the Government to amalgamate them, and Congress passed a law accordingly in 1884. This amendment was necessarily subservient to the contract already agreed on, but while drawing up the new contract on a modified basis, the clause giving the Syndicate option to issue the balance of the loan within six months was omitted. This irregularity gave rise to reciprocal recriminations. I must also state that an agreement was made that any quotation above 82½ should be divided between the Government and the Syndicate.

"With regard to the Thirty Million Loan, the Government negotiated the amount with a Paris Syndicate also, under the following conditions:—

"The bankers took 10 millions firm at 84 per cent, less 2½ per cent commission and expenses which reduced the quotation to 81½ per cent. After discounting the bills, the Government netted 77 per cent. Under these conditions, the bankers were granted the option of remaining with the balance of 20 millions, or with part of it, for ten months after signing the contract—say up to the 3rd of May last. If the Syndicate failed to make use of this option, it remained with the privilege of emitting the balance for account of the Government. Any quotation above 84 to be divided between the Government and the Syndicate.

"Let us now pass from these preliminaries to the difficulties that followed in the wake of these negotiations. The Syndicate that took the four million dollars firm for the City Improvement and Riachuelo Works did not place the bonds on the market, but kept them. The placing of the ten millions of the Thirty Million Loan was a failure, as the public only subscribed for £300,000 stg. It must also be remembered that the Thirty Million Loan was voted before the 12,000,000 of City Improvement and Riachuelo were placed on the market, furthermore, that the negotiations had been carried on with two Syndicates, with one at 82½ and with the other at 84, and that both parties were placed in financial antagonism.

"These negotiations have no other features of any great importance, and I must necessarily be very circumspect in these details which I supply to the House, as these contracts were signed and sealed long ago and in part carried out; it is our duty and our reciprocal interest to comply with them and to continue maintaining financial relations with these syndicates.

"Other circumstances combined to render the placing of these loans a difficult operation. Whilst the launching of these new issues was contemplated, new loans were being voted here. Loans were piled upon loans, 20 millions for the Madero port scheme, 20 millions for the mortage office of the National Bank, 10 millions for a boulevard; the 17 millions internal loan on all old debts of the Provincial Bank we converted into a foreign loan; not to mention the many new loans, or attempts thereat, of several provinces, one of which has indorsed its debt to 64 millions.

"The difficulties that stand in the way of our loans did not arise from impaired credit, as the nation and the provinces have steadily met their obligations in a most punctual manner. These difficulties arose from the fever and haste of our progress. Let this fact not induce us to suspend the works that we have begun, let it teach us greater foresight.

"We have solved a great political and constitutional problem that puzzled the nation for many years by the federalisation of B. Ayres. Its solution entailed on the nation the obligation of taking over the 15 millions of foreign debt of the B. Ayres Government. The province of B. Ayres began its reorganization by laying the foundations, not of a village, but of a city whose proportions might meet the wants of the population and of the territory. The Government began the construction of the Ensenada port, Rivadavia's great dream; it built valuable public edifices, and completed a net of railways to connect the embryonic city with the more distant parts and to infuse into it the vitality of the growth and progress of the province.

"Many of our difficulties can be traced to the great public works that the nation is carrying out all over the country. They are the cause of the present disorder, but, thanks to them, we now witness the great development and transformation that are visible in our elements of progress and wealth.

"The republic has undergone great changes since 1876, when the country was afflicted with a crisis the intensity of which is still fresh in all minds. Then the National Government owed, 4½ millions to the Provincial Bank, 2½ millions to the National Bank, 8 millions in government bills and large outstandings on other scores. Then the government resorted to the issue of ten millions of bank-notes of the Provincial Bank for account of the nation, and to the issue of 5 millions of Treasury bills at 9 o/o interest and 4 o/o amortization.

"Then our credit came down with a crash; real estate lost half its previous value; Cedulas fell to 50 o/o: banks collapsed here and in the provinces; our gold 6 o/o bonds fell in the London market as low as 29.

"To-day the credit in the market is as wide and as easy as ever; real estate is daily advancing in value; the quotations of the foreign bonds of the nation show no striking alteration. We have increased our public wealth by railways from Azul to Bahia Blanca, by a net of rails of the Government of B. Aires, by the Transandine, Campana to Sta. Fé, Villa Mercedes to Mendoza, San Juan, Rosario to Chumbicha, Santiago del Estero, and Tucuman to Salta and Jujuy railways.

"The private deposits in the banks of this city amonnt to-day to the enormous sum of 150 millions of dollars; our wealth in real estate and stock may be put down at 1,500,000,000$, and we have handed over to capital and labor no less than five thousand square leagues of land. Furthermore the nation to-day receives an annual human current from abroad equal to the average population of one of our fourteen provinces.

"We hear daily of the exorbitant increase in the public debt and of the extravagant use of credit. If we exclude the 17 millions old debts to the Provincial Bank, which existed as far back as 1876, and the 15 millions foreign debt of the Province of Buenos Aires, taken over in 1880, which is no increase, in reality, we see that the foreign debt of the nation has only increased as follows, since 1881:—

"12 millions in 1881 for railways.

"4 millions in 1882 to pay off floating debts.

"8,500,000$ in 1882 to increase the capital of the National Bank.

"14,000,000, part of the 12 million and 30 million loans; making a total of 38,500,000$, a figure much under the exaggerated notions entertained in this regard.

"We must draw a line between the unbridled speculation, which affects a forced currency, and the powerful elements of the nation.

"To-day both the nation and the provinces can say for the first time:—the development of our pastoral, farming and industrial wealth is represented in these factories, wharves, harbors, and railways; millions borrowed to produce more millions and to cooperate in the work of universal progress.

"Finally, if temporary drawbacks impede the placing of the loans that we have negotiated abroad, I beg to state that these difficulties shall not detain us. It is not credit we lack, it is management.

The President of the Republic has authorized me to state that he will not propose nor support any measure to issue paper money for account or under responsibility of the nation. The ten millions, or less, needed to continue the Public Works next year, will be supplied by a Bill which I intend presenting to the House before long (loud cheers and applause.)

FROM OUR BROTHER-EDITOR.

London, 17th July.

You ask me for telegrams, more telegrams, but the fact is there has been nothing to telegraph since the formation of the new Cabinet. However, the weather begins again to look stormy in the East, and I may have to send you startling news before this letter crosses the Line. There is a certain satisfaction in knowing how we stand, and under our new Government both the people of England and the Czar know that we shall have no more trifling. If the bear wants to fight, let him come on; and at present it looks uncommonly like as if he were disposed to come on. The Russian forces cross and re-cross Persian territory as if the Shah had already transferred his Kingdom to the Czar. That unspeakable old humbug of Teheran has long been in Russian pay, and the very posts of Cabinet Ministers are put up for auction and knocked down to Russian bidders, who farm out the public offices to Persians. As soon as Russia annexes Persia she will have a much desired outlet by sea: the Baltic is frozen half the year, and the Black Sea is muzzled by the Turk at the Dardanelles. Hence the conquest of Persia is almost a necessity; but it is quite possible that in the meantime Russia may burst into a hundred pieces. She is financially as subject to deficits as Portugal, where income has not covered expenditure for 30 years back.

Another Australian loan was launched yesterday, for £300,000, to make docks at some place called Napier: it was subscribed 4½ times. New South Wales is going to emit a fresh loan for 5 millions sterling; in fact the colonies can get as much money as they like, and every pound they borrow brings them in ten or fifteen per cent in increase of revenue, while they pay at the rate of 4 per cent.

On Wednesday evening Lord Wolseley arrived, but no one seemed to know of it till published next morning.

The print-shops are full of pictures of Princess Beatrice and Prince Henry of Battenberg, who are to be married next Thursday at Osborn. The princess is a general favorite.

In the streets the boys are calling out "Run on the Dublin banks," and yesterday gold was sent over in some quantities. On Monday the Munster Bank closed, after an existence of 21 years; it bought up the Latouche bank some years since. The Directors seem to have been drawing on the bank rather freely; there may be 300 or 400,000 pounds short, but the shareholders are notified to make good some calls. Depositors will lose nothing. It had no issue.

Some of the papers announce that Cardinal Howard, who is expected to-morrow, comes on a private mission from the Vatican to Lord Salisbury: the fact is His Eminence comes to London every year to see his friends and relatives. Archbishop Moran, of Sydney, who is to be made a Cardinal on Wednesday, will come to England the week after: he is nephew to the late Cardinal Cullen.

The silver question in the U. States is now so serious that the banks have offered to help the Treasury by giving 10 millions gold for that amount of silver; this will be a loss of 1½ millions to the banks, as the silver dollars are not worth 85 cents. At last people are seeing the absurdity of bi-metallism. Silver to-day is like sugar or tallow, a commodity of varying price, possessing herein the worst feature of "curzo forzoso" paper-money.

Chevalier Oldham of Montevideo has been elected a member of the British Association. There is perhaps no branch of science which commands greater interest in the Association than that which includes electric telegraphy and herein Chevalier Oldham has done such good service that the Association gladly enrols him.

THE MUNSTER BANK FAILURE.

Dublin, Julio 17.

The collapse of the Munster Bank is of course the talk of town and country. So great is the excitement, and so deep the interest felt in the event, that out of the beaten path though it certainly was no one expressed surprise that the Lord-Lieutenant should, in his reply to a deputation from the Royal Irish Academy which waited on him to present an address, have referred to a topic so utterly strange to the immediate matter in hand. Lord Carnarvon evidently theught that, irrelevant as the allusion was, it would be pardoned, having regard to the universal interest felt in it. The Dublin branch of the bank was opened this morning, but only for a couple of hours, and only for the receipt of payments upon other accounts. No money, it need hardly be said, was paid out, and some of the unpleasantness of the law of liability were experienced where those who were liable on bills found that these must be taken up, while whatever amount there might be to their credit on current could not be utilised for the purpose. At half-past 12 o'clock the front entrance of the bank was closed, and a copy was posted on the door, of the notice of suspension. Business of the description already mentioned, however, was carried on by the side entrance throughout the day. It is stated that the amount contributed by the Bank of Ireland up to the time when further advances were refused was 410,000*l.*, the securities given being chiefly Government stock. It is also stated that for another advance of 50,000*l.*, which the directors say would have tided them over the difficulty—in a temporary way it could only have been—they offered to lodge with the Bank of Ireland securities of the nominal value of five times that amount. It is stated that the difficulties of the Munster bank were known by almost every man in the Bank of Ireland since Monday last, and, moreover, that this knowledge was not confined even to them, for many persons who evidently had obtained a timely warning of the impending crash within the last week quietly withddrew their money or sold out their shares. A petition praying for the compulsory winding-up of the bank was this afternoon filed by Mr. John Mathews, solicitor, on behalf of Mrs. Harris, wife of Alderman Harris, J.P., a depositor, and shortly afterwards a second petition was filed by Mr. Bernard, solicitor, on his own behalf as a depositor and shareholder. Other petitions are in course of preparation. Not the slightest hope is entertained of a resuscitation of the bank. A despatch from Kildysart, country Clare, says that at the branch of the bank there yesterday morning depositors crowded around the door, and were determined on forcing it open, but the police, who are commissioned to protect it, removed the excited people. Great excitement prevails throughout the neighbourhood.

A despatch from Limerick says that the announcement received there yesterday regarding the suspension of payment by the Munster Bank produced a sensation the like of which has not been known for years. A formal notice has just been put up in the windows of the local branch, which is closed, and at ten o'clock a large and anxious crowd gathered in front of the building.

A conference, attended by Sir R. W. Jackson and several other of the Dublin shareholders, was held at the Munster Bank premises in Dublin last evening. The proceedings were prjvate. The result of their deliberations was to convene a meeting of the "committee of shareholders," to be held at eleven o'clock to-day, at the Imperial Hotel.

A Cork Correspondent telegraphs: The suspension of the Munster Bank caused some excitement to-day in commercial circles, but the papers this morning had prepared people for the worst, and there was not that degree of panic that would inevitably have occurred if the suspension had taken place without notification. Knots of people assembled here and there on the South Mall discussing the commercial situation, but there was little excitement. Though it was announced that the doors of the bank would be closed they remained open, and the entire staff of clerks were busily engaged at the books. The directors sent to investigate the affairs, but in the absence of full returns from Dublin and some of the country branches they were unable to furnish the promised statement of affairs The shareholders comprise a huge proportion of the female sex, many of whom have their all invested in Munster Bank shares, and their plight appears a most pitiable one. As the day progressed the crowd in the vicinity of the bank increased considerably, a large number of people from the country having arrived to ascertain how matters stood. Within the last hour the police had to keep the crowd moving so that the thoroughfare might not be stopped. Those who have accounts in the bank are placed in the most awkward predicament, and unless payment is resumed the inconvenience to trade, not alone in the city but in the county, will be enormous. The Corporation kept its account in the bank, and had 10,000*l.* on deposit receipt when the suspension took place. It is stated that the amount drawn out of the bank during the existence of the panic caused by the litigation was 800,000*l.* The acute stages of the crisis had passed, and 20,000*l.* or 30,000*l.* more would have enabled the directors to tide over the difficulty. The Bank of Ireland, who had been called upon largely already, refused to advance any more, and hence the collapse. Many of the permanent shareholders in Cork have consulted together to consider the situation. A preliminary meeting was held to-day, and it was decided to convene a general meeting to-morrow. It was also decided to ask the Mayor to wire to Mr. Parnell and Mr. Sexton stating that the failure would be regarded as a national calamity, and asking the Parliamentary party to request the aid of the Government. Substantial guarantees will be offered as a security to the Government for any aid they may give. A reply was received to-night from Mr. Sexton, saying he expressed regret at the disaster, and would take the first opportunity to bring the buestion under notice. The Corporation of Cork and the Harbour Board are large depositors in the bank, the former having over 9,000*l.*, and to-day at meetings of those bodies it was decided to make temporary arrangements to transfer their accounts to the National Bank, and so avoid any interruption to the financial business of the boards. There were numerous inquiries to-day for Mr. Shaw, M.P., but it was stated he had left town the previous day. Reports from the country branches state that at first the news created great consternation, but ultimately the excited feelings of the populace were allayed when the depositors were assured that their money was perfectly safe. There will be large individual sufferers in Cork. One gentleman held eleven hundred shares, and a father and his son held seventeen hundred shares. A meeting of the directors was held in Cork to-day, but nothing to retrieve the embarrassing situation was done. It was stated they had under consideration the idea of recommending a call of 1*l.* per share on the shareholders. Trade was practically at a standstill to-day, and a number of firms who had credit balances in the bank will be seriously inconvenienced. One person who lodged largely on Saturday was obliged to discharge his men to-day, as he will have no funds to meet contingencies.

ROSARIO ATHLETIC CLUB.

SPORTS HELD ON THE CLUB GROUNDS, AUGUST 15, 1885.

The sun ushered in Assumption Day without a cloud to intercept his rays. The Athletes could not possibly have had more glorious weather. The previous day had been also fine, but with a boisterous wind, and fears were entertained of its continuance; but luckily, sun, sky and atmosphere were propitious. Never had the Club such a splendid gathering. The Grand Stand had been lengthened by one-half, and on it some twelve to fifteen hundred people were crowded, amongst whom were a large number of ladies. The display of feminine bonnets, feathers, "nodding plumes," fans, etc., was a study of itself. As well as I could make out, there must have been upwards of three thousand people on the ground. The Club officials had everything admirably arranged, and not a hitch occurred; it was a long day of pleasure and excitement. The games were contested with great spirit. Great interest was displayed in the mile race, as it was said that a supreme effort was to be made to deprive the Argentine victor for three years running, of his laurels. Five competitors started, amongst whom one or two were from Buenos Ayres. As is his usual custom, Blas, the native, started off with a spurt, securing a good lead, Mr. A. Milne, of the C. A. Railway, being second. For three rounds the running was very good; the fourth round altered affairs. Three of the champions showed signs of fatigue, and Milne, in beautiful style, glided past Blas and took the lead, which he kept during the fifth and last round, reaching the tape in four minutes fifty and one half seconds, with the Argentine a dozen yards behind him; the others were distanced. This is the quickest time on record in Rosario. The Half-mile Race was also very good, won in splendid style by Mr. Miles, a Porteño, I believe. The Steeple-chase caused immense fun, as the runners had to leap a hurdle into a broad ditch of water. Mr. W. H. Kirby is a remarkably quick runner; he won the 100, 120, 220 and 440 yards against a number of competitors, with apparent ease. The gentlemen forming the Commission—amongst whom were Messrs. Fisher, Barnet, Schlieper, Boardman, Keenan, Thurburn, A. W. Baines, Jewell—may take much credit to themselves for the magnificent success of the Athletic Sports of 1885.

The prizes were more than ordinarily valuable this year, and were distributed by the beautiful Mrs. Schlieper, in that graceful way which, I have no doubt, enhanced in the eyes of the fortunate recipient the worth of his prize. The lady had a happy word of encouragement and congratutation for each of the victors.

MR. THICKE'S LECTURE.

Assuming that "illumination," in its general significance, is understood by all, I do not propose to enter into details concerning it, but I should like to give you one instance in which the art may be made applicable to the decoration of a room.

Let it be desired to fill a panel of any given dimension with an illuminated inscription. Take a sheet of tracing paper, the exact size, double it up in both directions, and the creases will give the vertical and horizontal guide lines for keeping the writing square and even. Then set out the number of lines or spaces requisite for the inscription, fixing upon a certain style of letter or alphabet for production from some work on illuminations, and make the height of the lines to correspond therewith. Then lay the tracing over and trace with pen, paper, or pencil, or brush each letter in succession, taking care to get each letter into its proper place in reference to the whole panel. When this is complete, trace on whatever ornaments may best fill up the open spaces and harmonize with the style of lettering. By this method of working, with care and neatness of hand, very agreeable results may be obtained without its being indispensable for the illuminator to be a skilful draughtsman, though he should have an eye for colour and harmony. The tracing may be ultimately attached to its proper place and finished off, and, if properly managed, it will be impossible to detect that tracing paper has ever been employed,

Frequently round doors, windows, fireplaces, etc., inscriptions may be executed with very good effect either on label scrolls or simple borders, and with great or less brilliancy of colour, according to the circumstances of the case. Often simplicity and quiet have greater charms than glitter or brilliancy; thus black and red, on a light-coloured ground, is always sure to produce an agreeable impression; blue crimson, or marone on gold, or vice versa, are no less safe. Black, white and gold can hardly go wrong.

Few amateurs would attempt illuminations upon ceilings, for there is great difficulty of working overhead with a steady hand, but even this can be accomplished in time with the same agreeable results. With good models upon which to base his varieties of design the beginner may do much, and will probably succeed best by recurring incessantly to Nature. What, for instance, can be more beautiful or more appropriate for intertwining with rich scroll work than the convolvolus, the woodbine, or the passion flower? These form truly elegant studies for all varieties of ornamentation. A lizard, with its beautiful, emerald green back and yellow underparts, and rich brown legs, can be effectively introduced with its long tail twisted round the stem of a plant, and its little head and brilliant eyes shown just peeping out from underneath one of the beautiful flowers.

A lady bird, with its bright red wings, butterflies, moths in endless variety, are most appropriate subjects for the student to dwell upon. Animals, flowers, fruit, shells, corn, etc., all form objects of interest in a design for friezes, dados, and screens.

Something similar to the following I would recommend as inscriptions for the embellishment of ceilings, friezes, string courses, etc., In rooms.

Some might be illumined on vellum and hung in the various apartments indicated, or be inserted in panels of furniture or on screens.

Motto for a drawing-room—
No bliss so great but cometh to an end,
No fate so hard but may in time amend.
GEORGE HERBERT.

Motto for a studio—
Order is Nature's Beauty, and the way
To order is by rules that Art hath found.

Motto for the breakfast or dining-room—
When there is no peace there is no feast.
CLARENDON.

Motto for kitchen—
A feast must be without a fault,
And if 'tis not all right, 'tis nought.

Motto for supper-room—
As men
Do walk a mile, women should talk an hour
After supper, 'tis their exercise.
BEN JOHNSON.

Motto for smoking-room—
The first draught serveth for health,
The second for pleasure,
The third for shame,
The fourth for madness.

Motto for bedrooms—
He who goes to bed, and goes to bed sober,
Falls as the leaves do, and dies in October.
But he who goes to bed, and goes to bed mellow,
Lives as he ought to live and dies an honest fellow.
Rise with the lark, and with the lark to bed.

Motto for a gentleman's dressing-room—
The apparel oft proclaims the man.

Motto for ladies' boudoir—
'Tis Beauty that doth make women preud,
'Tis Virtue that doth make them most admired,
'Tis Modesty that makes them seem divine.
SHAKESPEARE.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The weather yesterday was so intensely European that most people believe the Pellegrini loan is done. We can offer no opinion, only report that the piercing wind swept the streets, and Calle Florida was deserted yesterday afternoon.

Last night's telegrams by Havas bring the astounding news of a revolution in Khartoum; the particulars will be found in the telegram. We are happy to say that cholera is not making any headway in Marseilles.

Letters from London speak of Mrs. W. Wilson's garden party as one of the events of the London season.

Mr. Krel, a shareholder of the Central Argentine Railway, made a severe charge at the meeting in London against Messrs Parish and Russell Shaw; we are obliged through press of copy to hold over the particulars till to-morrow.

Mr. Keyser has patented a new and remarkably cheap telephone which beats all the other telephones hollow; you can speak through the machine whilst sitting at your desk. Mr. Keyser is opening offices at 94 Calle Maipu up-stairs.

In consequence of the benefit performance to be given at the Colon Theatre his evening on behalf of Mr. Daniel Latham W. Sang Connacher has kindly consented to postpone the reading of his paper at the Rooms of the English Literary Society until to-morrow [Thursday] evening at 8.30 p.m.

Mr Jam, the wizard, debuted in Concepcion last week, and had fair success; but before the performance was half over the phizes of the audience assumed a 'Jam satis' expression; probably because the weather was cold, and they wanted to get home to bed.

The New York Bulletin of June 26th has the following about the flying 'South American Commission' that had barely time to say to President Roca, 'Guess your country is some pumpkins, Mr. President,' when they rushed for the mole and were off:—"Information wanted—of the sometime missing 'South American Commercial Commission.' At last accounts, long ago, they were drifting about somewhere, we believe, in the latitude and longitude of Tierra del Fuego, en route for Rio Janeiro or some other place, but since that time nothing has been heard of them. We trust nothing out of the way has happened to them." The same paper calls the Commissioners "Wandering Minstrels," and says their mission was all bosh. So it was. Finally, the Bulletin winds up as follows:—"Is it not about time these so-called Trade Commissions were called home? There are such things as national pride and national self-respect, which may be presumed upon too far. The representatives of a great country like this going about, cap in hand as it were, begging (and begging in vain) every wretched little Spanish American Republic to trade with it, is not an edifying spectacle, and we say the sooner the curtain drops upon it the better."

The papers were very telegrammy yesterday. Capital news from the Soudan: England and Italy going at it together there, to smash the new Mahdi. If Gordon is alive, he ought to show himself now. Lord Caleridge's marriage is a queer affair. The old gentleman must be within measurable distance of his doatage.

The Clerk's polite note to us on Monday was verified yesterday. It rained outside, and there was every appearance yesterday of the approaching break up of the long drought.

We call the immediate attention of General Sarmiento and the members of the Zoophile Society to a barbarous wager the papers refer to as made between two fools in Barracas, to gallop their horses till one of the poor brutes gives in from fatigue. The fellows that could make such a wager as this ought to be kicked.

The Santa Fè Legislature has voted 8000 nats to Dr Somebody or other to enable him to go to Europe and study the cholera. What a job! Cholera seems to be quite a fashionable study just at present.

There was another bit of duelling comicality at La Plata on Monday. A 'procurador' was challenged to fight by an auctioneer, but refused, on the ground that a mere 'rematador' was not his equal in social position; whereupon the latter's second, an editor, offered to fight in his principal's place. The wily attorney then put in the plea that an editor was too much above him in social position for him to think of shooting a member of such an illustrious 'gremio.' The upshot was there was no fight.

The Cabildo is turned inside out and upside down. Repairs, alterations and enlargements are going on all over the building at the same time; and the consequent dust makes all the dingy-looking lawyers and their clients, who haunt the place like owls, look dingier than ever. Can any one explain the connection that seems to exist between seedy black clothes and shocking bad hats and the profession and pursuit of law?

Our readers will not forget that the Latham benefit takes place this evening at Colon, and we are sure will not fail to give Our Dan a parting compliment. It must not be forgotten that Mr Latham has done more for our amusement than could have been expected from any manager under like circumstances and probably more than an older and more experienced manager would have cared to have risked. It is extremely probable that to-night's performance will be the last English-speaking professional entertainment we shall have the opportunity of witnessing for many years, as we do not suppose anyone else will be bold enough to try a like venture, so let us make hay while the sun shines and bid adieu to English players in true English fashion. We are requested to state that the special Belgrano Train will leave the Central Station at 11.40 p.m. prompt, and that consequently the performance will conclude at 11.30 p.m.

O! Gemini! The papers are already talking about "pomos" for next Carnival.

They are going to build a theatre at San Fernando, to amuse the high-lifers there and thereabouts during the summer months.

We are requested to state that there is a letter for Mr. Michael Casey at 373 Calle Victoria.

There was a grand Free Mason blow-out at La Plata on Sunday, Mr. Justice Langenheim playing first violin. A new lodge was opened, we believe.

The Banda Orientalers in this city intend to give a grand ball in the Cafe Tortoni on the 25th, to celebrate their Independence.

The Staff, which is now completed, consists of the following; and, as will be seen by the qualifications appended is, perhaps the best working-staff to be found in any private school, Native or Foreign, in the Argentine Republic.

Master of Arts ("Honours" in Philosophy, Edinburgh University); Fellow of the Educational Institute of Scotland, First Prize Essayist (Educational Subjects) Edinburgh University, Session 1879-80; and, for more than eight years one of the Masters of George Watson' College, Edinburgh.

EDITOR'S TABLE

The Barbers of the city intend to have a jollification on the 22nd and 23d, the chief items of which will be a ball in the Coliseum and a procession on horseback to Belgrano. Next to a mounted sailor, a barber 'a cheval' is the most comical sight going. It seems to be a law of nature that no barber knows how to ride, and for this reason the 'gremio' is passionately fond of equestrianism. The fact that all the shavers in town are French may have something to do with it. A Gaul is never so happy as when astride of anything in the shape of a horse, although his tenure of his seat is so woefully uncertain.

The Zoophiles have taken the Mataderos in hand, and we give them a vigorous slap on the back therefor. Emperor William's new subjects in Zanzibar could not have a more cruel, abominable and unhealthy system of slaughtering animals for food than the "culta Buenos Aires." Really, the descriptions in the papers of these Mataderos are so repulsive that it is enough to make a man take to a purely vegetable diet for the rest of his life.

A Mount black man took a dose of poison the other day because a lady as black as himself refused to marry him. The doctor saved his precious existence.

A 'conventillo' mania is raging in Rosario. Every capitalist, great and small, is building dens for the poor to squat in, and unhealthy, fever-breeding dens. Of course, the blessed Municipality does not take the least notice.

Dr. Costanza of Santa Fé accidentally wounded his wife the other day while fumbling with a revolver in his drawing-room. What business has a man taking his revolver with him into a drawing-room? As well put his feet on the table, or into the bread-basket. In a Rosario tavern, the other day, a similar accident occurred, and the cook was shot through the gizzard by a careless 'peon.'

A most side-splitting affair occurred in the Santa Fé theatre the other night during an attempt at the Cabinet trick by Mr and Mrs Charloffski. Mr. Sherzer, one of the most respectable men in the town, was tied and locked into the Cabinet with Mrs. C. Suddenly the lady began to scream, and there was a ruction in the piece of furniture. Some of the audience shouted out "D——n it Sherzer, behave yourself!" The cabinet was opened, and there was poor S. with his face scratched, but still untied. The fact was that Mrs C., not being able to untie him, scratched his face. The end of it was a free fight on the stage between Charloffski, his wife, Mr Sherzer, and several friends of the lot. The scuffle was by far the best part of the evening's entertainment, and the audience fairly screamed with laughter.

A New York colleague makes the following irreverent remarks about the new Earl Cairns, who, by the way, appears to be pretty considerably hard-up:—"So our own Lord Gumboil, now Earl Cairns, has secured an office that will enable him to make up for the damages he had to pay his dramatic fiancée. The Duke of Richmond has made the young man his assistant private secretary. This is not much for an Earl; but then the Cairns breed is said to be excessively parsimonious and passionately fond of money."

There is a rumour of intended quarantine on vessels from British ports at Montevideo. The accounts of the cholera in Spain are appalling; but the general impression is that the cholera announced in England is not Asiatic cholera; and, even if it is, they know how to deal with the dread visitor there, which cannot be said of any other country. Panic and all sorts of wild, harum-scarum measures (such as here) are invariably seen everywhere else when a plague appears. Witness poor Spain this year, and France and Italy last year, with their sanitary cordons, quarantine, fumigation, etc. And yet they will not be persuaded, that such precautions are pure rubbish, as the result has proved over and over again.

"On dit" that the officers of the Bomberos will be given army rank. This is no great compliment to the regulars; though, no doubt, the Bombero officers are most deserving men in their way. The police officers will next want army rank, and they have quite as good a right to it as the Firemen.

The trial of the cremation urns at Martin Garcia the other day was a most supreme 'fiasco.' We're sorry for it. Nothing cleans up a defunct immigrant like cremating him; and, dead or alive, he is, as a rule, susceptible of a deal of cleaning.

The subscription for the relict of the late Mr Salvador Negrotto now amounts to 1200 and odd pats. It is odd that it is not larger, the much lamented pedagogue having had so many friends. He taught half the prominent public men of the present day.

Mr Sobrino, of the 9th Cuartel in Lobos, has given a square of ground and 20,000 bricks to build a school there. "Mon Noven" is a brick.

There was a little mad-dog excitement in Gualeguaychu the other day owing to a Ligurian having missed a pot-shot with a blunderbuss at a big mastiff in a state of raging hydrophobia. The Italian ran for it, and got up a tree, the dog fixing its teeth in the trunk. So frightened was the man, that, for several days after, he fancied himself still up the tree with the dog at his feet.

The Celmanistas are still keeping the ball rolling. They had another Bengal-fire demonstration in Pilar parish on Monday night.

The Buenos Aires Government has given Mr Cassels a whole square at La Plata for his three electric motors. It will cost 20,000 nats to put them up; but the Government, of course, pays.

The 'dependientes' of Uruguay lately got up a Sunday Closing movement; but the poor, overworked fellows were unceremoniously 'sat upon' by the Municipality.

Rosario has become such a den of thieves that every man there now carries the 'Protector' revolver, a little weapon that fits in the waist-coat pocket and can put twelve bullets per minute into the corpus of a footpad or burglar. When discharged, the report is like a clap of thunder, and enough to give the alarm a mile off.

The wretched little provincial sheets are now so excited about the Presidential elections that they accuse their opponents of all kinds of things, and the postmasters of retaining political circulars and letters. Who would blame a postmaster if he made a bonfire of such mail rubbish?

The doctors who were to have gone to Europe to study the cholera in Spain have not started yet, and, if they take our advice, won't start at all. Cholera is like Sanscrit, one of those things that it is not indispensable to study.

Dysentery, Cholera Fever, Ague Coughs, Colds, &c.
Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne
(Ex Army Medical Staff)
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's—See Times, July 12th 1864.
The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than
Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.
REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.
This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates health action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensive.
CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.
CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.
CHLORODYNE effectually cheeks and arrests too often fatal diseases Diphtheria Fever, Croup, Ague.
CHLORODYNE acts like a charming Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer Toothache, Meningites, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemist, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan-5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 22, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London—"Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congralulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all classes."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J. Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

ON 'CHANGE

August 18th, 1885

Gold	43.70 o/o prem.
Cedulas F	80
Cedulas G	88
Nat. Bank Certificates	104

Gold opened with a jump this morning at 144 cash, but flattened somewhat, closing at 143.70 for cash; 99,016 sold. For the end of the month 235,000 sold, opening at 144.50 and closing at 143.50. For September 220,000 sold, opening at 143 and closed at 142.50. For 31st October 50,000 sold at 141.50, closing at 141. Total day's sales, 649,016 dollars.

Cedulas rule very firm; 59,750 Series F at 79½-80, and 5,000 for end of month at 79¾. The new Series G now comes free enough on the market; all the Cedula brokers show the new stock to their friends. Sales cash 17,000 at 88, and for end of month 5,000 at 88½.

National Bank Certificates sold for the end of September at 104, but when we consider this embraces the new call it makes the cash price of to-day's sale equal to about 94.

In other stocks and securities nothing doing; gold is the attractive object of all speculation; everything centres on gold, and one well-known party buys so very largely for September that it is well known his circle believes in very high gold next month.

The only Pelligrini news stirring to-day was that all the bankers have left London, and in Paris things are at a stand still, owing to the uneasy feeling about cholera extending from Spain.

Exchange rules at 46¾ and 4.92 Paris, very little doing, as the mail has just left.

The debate in Congress yesterday was much talked of on 'Change, and very great satisfaction expressed that at last everything has been made public about those loans, which appear to have been most dreadfully mismanaged. The various contracts will now be sent to Congress and published in the papers. The fact stands now that of the ten millions taken firm by Morgan & Co, only 300,000 were placed.

In a few days a complete financial plan, drawn up by the Minister, will be laid before Congress. That which will most interest our commercial readers will be the increased taxation on cottons, sugars, and a few other articles.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

We have received from London, by the mail, a beautiful plan or map of the new Brazilian railway to run from Uruguayana to Port Alegre. Half of the line is at present finished, opened to the public and running. We believe this Company is the one with which Mr. Leighton Jordan is connected. Those interested in the matter can see the map at our office.

Santa Fé lands are now attracting much attention in London, and we learn by letter from a London friend that orders are being sent out to buy lands in Santa Fé, and on a large scale. It is probable that the extension of the Rosario and B. A. Railway to Sunchales may have much to do with this, and that the same company of London capitalists that are engaged in this splendid railway see the great advantage of securing all the available land up about Sunchales for future colonial purposes.

The arrival of Dr. Plaza in Rio Janeyro was announced by some of the papers there in the most friendly and complimentary terms. We suppose Dr. Plaza called upon the Emperor, who always has a welcome for distinguished Argentines.

The gale for the last 24 hours has been so severe as to much interfere with the port business. Down in Montevideo they are having a fearful time of it, and the passengers up this morning from the Mount had a hard night of it.

The Rio Negro mail steamer Pomona entered the Boca to-day; she brings from Patagones a full cargo and a great many passengers, amongst them Mr Atkins, one of the oldest residents down there. The Pomona, when going down from here, had a very bad passage, and was delayed off the bar of the Rio Negro. It has rained and snowed in the far South, and the camps down there are in good condition, sheep and cattle doing splendidly, and population increasing fast in the valley, and on the open lands, between the Rio Negro and Colorado. There is nothing down there of the epidemic and losses in sheep and cattle that we have to record in the north and west, and spite of the great cold this winter, the sheep and cattle in the far South never did better. The diligence running from Bahia Blanca to Patagones is doing a large business, and always full of passengers.

The death of M. Peter Murray, an old and much respected English resident, was reported to-day. Deceased was in poor health for some time. His funeral takes place in forth morning (Wednesday) at 10 o'clock at the British Cemetery.

The important land sale reported on 'Change, 18 square leagues in the VIII Section National Territories, for 4,500$m/n per league. The buyers are Messrs Juan Shaw e hijos. Broker Mr Gonzalez Arrascaeta. This is one of the most important Nat. land sales effected for some time in this market, and shows the steady demand for these Nat. lands. The property in question lies out at Victorica.

At after hours the gold market ruled most excited prices rose to 145, but the market turned, one or two parties entered and sold heavily at 144½ 144 143½, when the pause came. The news was that the Provincial Bank board had notified Minister Pacheco that the Bank required no further emission, but required its general Bond for the 17 million loan. This news was magnified into great importance and checked the rise in gold, but no man can answer for the future of the gold market, so violent have been the changes since last month. About 600,000 m/n sold. The strong buyers for September continue buying.

The Tamar is due here about the 22nd, she brings £200,000 sterling in gold for the Provincial Bank.

Exchange rules this afternoon at 3/8 prem. on Montevideo, 13,100 on Rio and 46½ on London.

Another estancia sale 2½ leagues, Azul, estancia San Luis, for 95,000 m/n, buyer J. Viton brokers Aug. Ferrer and D. Gomez.

Messrs. Hughes & Dunzelmann have sold four more leagues of the Nenes camps at the same price as those previously sold, say 8,000 m/n per league, 1/5 cash and rest in four annual payments. These four leagues are the last of the 30 leagues which have been sold during the last two months by the same brokers.

We will give in our next issue the report of a stormy meeting in London of the shareholders of the Central Argentine Railway which will be read with interest out here, as also the following addendum to the meeting giving three thousand Guineas to the President and Board of Directors, which, our readers will note, was not well received by the meeting. The following is the extract:—

"Mr. Van Tromp proposed a vote of thanks to the chairman and directors for their able conduct of the affairs of the company, and to the representatives of the company in the Argentine Republic for their zealous and efficient services.

"Mr. Surgey seconded the resolution, and suggested that something more substantial than a vote of thanks should be given to the directors in recognition of their services. He pointed out that the company had now reached a period of unexampled prosperity, and that although all the credit for this was not due to the board, as fortunately they had a splendid railway to manage, yet the chairman had been connected with the undertaking for twenty-one years, as had also Mr. Lawrence Heyworth, and the board generally had served the company most faithfully. (Hear, hear.) In spite of what had been said by Mr. Krell, he believed the connection of Mr Parish and Mr. Shaw with the Rosario Company was a positive benefit to this undertaking, as they prevented anything being done in the way of competition which would injure this company. As there was a surplus balance of £3,400 proposed to be carried forward, he thought the meeting could not do better than give 1,500 guineas to the chairman in recognition of his services extending over a period of twenty-one years, and 1,500 guineas to the other directors, to be divided amongst them as they might see fit. (Hear, hear.) He hoped, too, the board would treat all the officials of the company handsomely, from the highest to the lowest, for he was anxious that all should participate in the prosperity of the undertaking.

"Mr. Van Tromp coincided with the views expressed by Mr. Surgey, but doubted whether the meeting could vote the balance of £3,400 to the directors, having already adopted the recommendation of the report to carry the amount forward to the next account. He suggested that a sum of money should be voted to the directors out of current receipts, by a separate resolution. (Hear, hear.)

"The resolution of thanks was then put and carried nem. con. and the Chairman briefly acknowledged the compliment to the board.

"Mr. Surgey then embodied his suggestions in a separate resolution, and proposed that a sum of 1,500 guineas be voted to the chairman, and a similar sum to the other directors in recognition of their past services in helping to bring the company into its present prosperous condition.

"Mr. Hooke seconded the resolution.

"Mr. Roberts doubted whether it would be legal to vote away the amount proposed without special notice to all the shareholders.

"Mr. W. Morrison shared the opinion of the last speaker, although appreciating the compliment proposed to be paid to the board.

"After further discussion the resolution was carried, subject to the opinion of Mr. Travers Smith, the company's solicitor, on the question of the legality of the vote, no notice of it having been sent to the general body of shareholders.

"The Chairman, on behalf of the board, returned thanks for the compliment paid them, and said so substantial a recognition of their services was quite unexpected.

"The proceedings then terminated."
